Transcript

Little fable. "Oh," said the mouse, "the world is becoming narrower every day. At first, it was so wide that I was afraid, I kept running and was happy that I could finally see in the distance walls on the right and on the left, but these long walls are now rushing toward each other so fast that I'm already in the last room and there in the corner is the trap I'm running into." "You need only change the direction," said the cat and ate it.
