

Transcript

00:00:01

Bell towers, telling the time on Christchurch Meadow.

00:00:05

Standing on broadwalk just to the left of Merton Grove facing Christchurch Meadow.

00:00:13

I love the sound of the open Meadow in front of me, often accompanied by the sound of animals eating, drinking, moving or mooing, and of children playing a game of cricket.

00:00:24

It's all so different from the sounds of traffic and other business in High Street.

00:00:29

I love the majestic and consistent sound from the Bell towers. Always telling the time in the exact same sequence and pace.

00:00:40

Maudling College, Merton College and Christchurch. It feels like the seconds are longer, like they're more real than my everyday stress seconds are.